- VidGrid
Allows you to stream multiple live news feeds, YouTube channels and music stations at once on a single page.
- DownVids
Allows a user to easily download videos from YouTube, Vimeo, Facebook and Instagram by entering a URL.

Other

---

- OH SHINT! Blog
Yep, it's an OSINT blog. This is where you are now.
- MonologueDB
Online collection of monologues from movies, TV shows, plays and more. Includes transcripts and video clips.
- What Tree Is That?
An interactive tool that helps identify a certain type of tree by asking a few questions.
- FakeSpot
Spot and avoid shady sellers, products with dishonest reviews and scam websites for free. Available as a website, Android and iOS application, Firefox add-on and as a Google Chrome extension.
- Six Degrees of Wikipedia
Interesting tool that shows you a graph of the shortest paths from one Wikipedia topic to another. Mostly useless, but still worth mentioning.
- WikiLess
A privacy focused alternative to Wikipedia. Basically Wikipedia without all of the invasive tracking.
